

Surplus Barely Safe Margin, Auditor Cummings Declares

Fire Guts Closet, Destroys Clothing at Jordan Home

Early morning flames in the Troy Jordan home Monday caused extensive smoke damage to furniture and clothing.

Fire broke out in a back bedroom closet at about 8:30 a.m. in the house located on the northern part of the West Texas State College campus. Volunteer firemen were on the scene in minutes and prevented the blaze from spreading to other parts of the house.

One fireman, Gerald Warwick, was overcome by the dense smoke and had to be carried out to a resuscitator. Jordan said the only items destroyed by the flames were children's clothing.

"Of course, all our other clothing and furniture were

Beckman Opposes Blanket County Payroll Increase

County Commissioner Clarence Beckman Tuesday declared that he is against any move to raise county employee salaries on a blanket percentage basis.

Beckman's declaration came at a meeting of the court in an exchange with County Auditor E.T. Cummings.

Cummings had figured a raise of about 10 percent for most county office holders next year. "We had to use some figure," Cummings replied. The auditor said that the raise of 10 percent has held true in the past in most cases whether in the form of pay raises for officials or increased personnel.

Salary raises in general was the subject of an animated conversation for several minutes. "I don't think that a surplus is anything to be ashamed of," declared Commissioner Glenn Dowlen.

The court voted to put a war surplus fire truck purchased by the county into good running condition. The truck was purchased for $280 by the county. New it costs about $28,000.

Canyon City Manager Bill York and Charlie Foster, the city's only paid fireman, met with the court to discuss the future status of the truck. This will be discussed further when the vehicle has been repaired.

Booster Bus To Make El Paso Trip

A Buffalo booster bus is being chartered to take a group of Canyon people to the Buffalo-Texas Western football game in El Paso next week. Bill Griffin said the bus will leave here Friday morning of next week and return the following Sunday.

Anyone interested in making reservations for the trip should contact Griffin or Hosea Foster.

The court also talked about the county's insurance program. Commissioners agreed that it would be a good idea to seek the advice of some insurance association on how best to distribute the county's insurance business among the insurance agencies in the county.

Expects 10% Boost

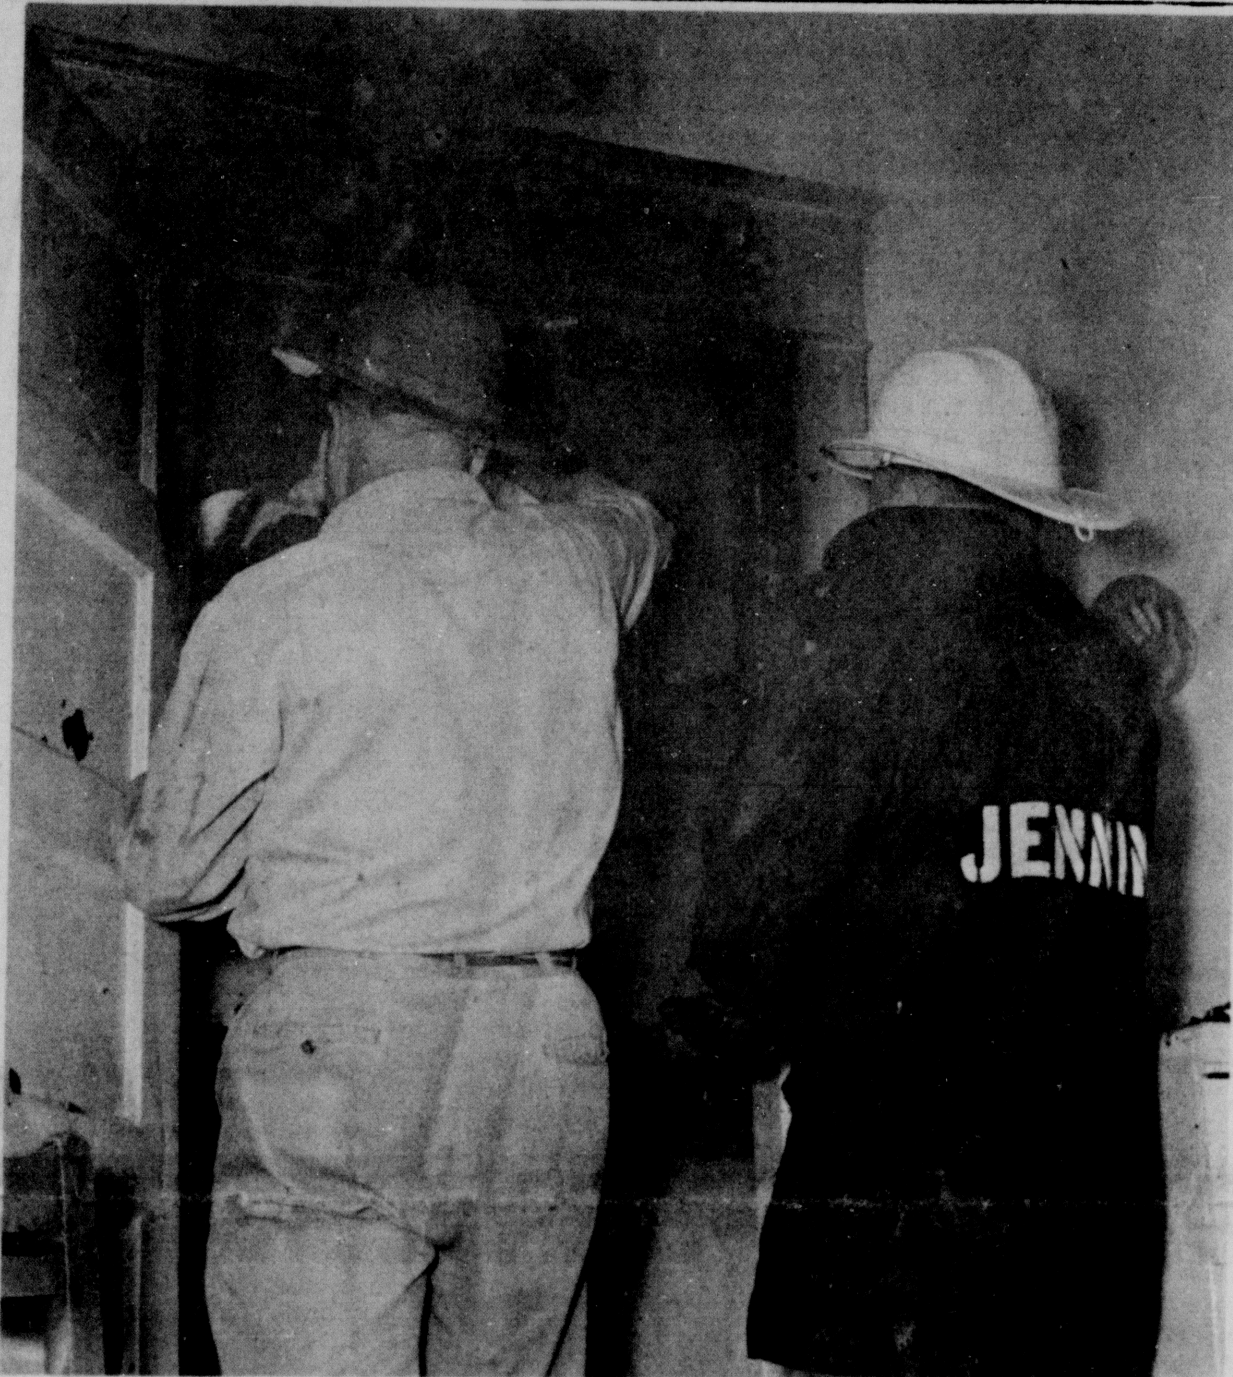

A boost of about ten per cent will be registered in enrollment for the fall semester over that of 1960 at West Texas State College, President James P. Cornette has announced.

Enrollment of full time day students is expected to reach between 2,640 and 2,650 when official registration closes Sept. 27, based on comparable figures of last year, Dr. Cornette said.

At the close of the sixth day of registration, a total of 2,578 had registered this fall, compared with 2,339 at the same time a year ago. Final enrollment last year was 2,405.

The number of night classes students is expected to total approximately 1,200 part time students, showing a gain of about 150 over that of last fall, the last semester the night program was held at the Amarillo Center.

Registration will continue for evening classes until the second class meeting, last of which will also be on Sept. 27. Enrollment procedures have been changed since the move to Canyon, and an accurate measuring method cannot be used, Dr. Cornette said.

FLAMES SWEEPED through a bedroom closet in the Troy Jordan home Monday morning and caused heavy smoke damage to all furnishings. Above, Charlie Foster, fire captain and Jack Jennings, fire marshal, investigate the closet in which the fire broke out.

School Board Turns Down $7,000 in Funds

Canyon school board Tuesday night turned down some $7,000 in federal aid.

Canyon school district could have received some $5,000 under Public Law 874 and an additional $2,000 under provisions of the National Defense Education Act.

Public Law 874 provides federal assistance to school districts in "impacted areas" where children of federal employees attend a school in great numbers.

School Superintendent Joe Gibson said about 50 or 60 such youngsters attend Canyon schools.

Under provisions of the National Defense Education Act the federal government pays for 50 percent of materials and supplies used in the teaching of mathematics, science and related subjects.

The school district does accept some federal aid notably in the vocational agriculture and school lunch programs.

Peg Debt Service Need At $120,000

Randall County's $212,815.00 surplus provides little more than a safe margin for operating the county's business, E.T. Cummings, county auditor, declared this week.

He pointed out that $120,531.40 is needed to provide a year in advance for servicing the county's indebtedness and the remainder is scattered over various county operating funds to provide safe margins.

He said most bonding company advisers recommend that a government subdivision maintain a surplus equivalent to that required for servicing indebtedness for one year.

Cummings said all the surplus for next year is as yet on paper and will remain estimates until the end of 1962.

The auditor said county taxes are set in May, the budget for the following year drawn in October and salaries are not set until January.

"You can see that we work under a bit of a handicap," he said.

The auditor said $92,283.71 is scattered over more than a half dozen funds.

Surplus in the jury fund for 1962 is estimated at $2,438.07. "Two special venire that we're not expecting and an extended session of the grand jury could wipe this surplus out," Cummings declared.

There is a projected $32,976.93 surplus in the general fund.

"We know pretty well what office operation is going to cost," Cummings reported. "But there are things we just can't figure until they happen. For instance, we've allowed only $5,000 for charity cases. I remember one year when a single charity case cost the county $6,000."

The court house and jail fund is projected to have a balance of $35,361.95 by the end of next year, Cummings said.

The salary and general funds are slated to show a balance of $80,898.00 by the end of next year. Cummings said this represents operating capital for about four months for the county.

The road and bridge fund is scheduled to have a surplus of about $55,452.00, about enough to pave 10 miles of road.

The debt service fund will have a balance of $38,663.97 by the end of 1962. This is far short of the recommended figure, Cummings said. However, he said money could be transferred into the debt servicing fund from other funds where surplus exists should the need ever arise. This could be accomplished by a vote of the commissioners, he pointed out.

The county auditor said there is a definite possibility that taxes may be lowered next year. He said the county is now in the black after years of deficit.

Taxes on city property were lowered about 16 2/3% this year while raises in evaluation of rural property amounted to about an 18% hike.

Eagles Face Veteran Team in Friday Game

Canyon Eagles will be facing a team of almost 100 per cent seniors when they meet Phillips there Friday night.

Only junior on the team is Spiles who plays at right half. "He is one of their best backfield blockers and we'll see plenty of action out of him," Webb said.

Canyon is fielding some changes in the offensive lineup, Webb added.

Ronny Harris has been switched from center to tackle position. Jess Sheets has been moved to end. New center is John Stritzel. Stritzel played behind Harris. Also, Gary Lee has been moved to a starting end position.

Webb said possibly the two finest players the Eagles will face this year will be on the Phillips team. They are Jackie Gray, senior fullback and their senior right guard, Baldwin.

"It's going to be a tough game," Webb said. "All their players are veterans and do an especially fine job of blocking and tackling."

Bufs Face Brigham Young In Season Opener Saturday

West Texas State's Buffaloes will be gunning for their first opening game victory since 1957 when they take on Brigham Young of the Skyline Conference Saturday night at Buffalo Bowl.

A record crowd, expected to reach between 15,000 and 20,000, is predicted for the grand opening. It has been designated "Amarillo night" and Amarillo merchants have donated many fine gifts for door prizes, including a 1962 Corvair Monza car. Kickoff time is 7:30, and area fans are urged to leave home early to avoid traffic jams that may occur.

The last opening victory came at the expense of McMurry, 20-7, in a home contest in '57. Since then, the Bufs have been on the losing end of opening games with Virginia Tech in 1958, Arizona State in 1959, and Texas Tech last year.

Fall practice has produced few injuries for the Bufs, who are thin in some positions. Coach Joe Kerbel, in his second year at the helm, thinks his entire squad will be available for duty, barring late injuries. The biggest blow of fall practice was the loss of John Varnell, 6-5, 230-pound sophomore tackle from Plainview. He received a head injury and will not play this season.

The Bufs will have adequate size, the line averaging 208 and the backfield 183. Biggest man in the starting lineup is Jim Perry, 6-5, 230-pound sophomore end from Abilene, and the smallest is Buffalo quarterback Jim Dawson, 170-pound junior who ranks as one of the nation's finest passers. Dawson hails from Borger.

Against Brigham Young, the Bufs will face their first single wing football team in several years. This is the first year for the "revived" offense at the Utah school. It also is the first year as head coach for Hal Mitchell, a former star at UCLA under the late Red Sanders.

Saturday's game will be the first in history between the two schools.

Nurse Now on Duty At Canyon Public Schools

Canyon public schools are benefitting from the services of a school nurse for the first time, according to Joe Gibson, school superintendent.

Mrs. Ann Carlin, R.N., who is with the Bi-City-County Health Unit, is in Canyon schools two and one-half days each week working with parents, teachers and students.

"I am here mainly as a preventative measure," Mrs. Carlin said. "Of course, in case of an emergency I will assist any way I can."

Mrs. Carlin's schedule calls for two days in the schools one week and three days the next. Although her duties in the school buildings do not occupy a full 40-hour week, she spends her entire working time in Canyon and Randall County.

"Work in the schools is not all there is to being a school nurse," Mrs. Carlin pointed out. "We also must make home calls, discuss problems with the parents and family physicians and work closely with community health and social welfare agencies."

Typical day in the school for Mrs. Carlin may follow the schedule below:

8:30 to 9 a.m.—available for conferences with parents, teachers or students.

9 to 9:30 a.m.—in clinic for referrals from teachers.

9:30 to 12 noon—in clinic to do health appraisals on new students or appraisals on reerrals from defects found by teachers. Scheduled teacher-nurse conferences. Home visits.

1 to 1:30 p.m.—in clinic for afternoon referrals.

1:30 to 3:15 p.m.—classroom talks, films, special group discussions. Scheduled conferences with teachers or parents. Home visits.

3:15 to 3:45—in clinic. Records, reports, planning.

During her three years with the health unit Mrs. Carlin has worked in Amarillo public schools, parochial schools and worked with people who requested services of the unit.

Receiving her registered nursing degree from Northwest Texas Hospital, she served as a navy nurse 18 months.

Following discharge from the navy she went to Saint Louis and received a bachelor's degree in public health nursing at Saint Louis University.

She then spent several years in her husband's native state, Iowa.

Upon return to Amarillo, Mrs. Carlin was named nurse to student nurses at the school at Northwest Texas. She held that position until she went to work for the health unit as public health nurse.

MRS. ANN CARLIN, registered nurse, is Canyon's first school nurse. She is on duty at the public schools two and one-half days a week. Mrs. Carlin is with the Bi-city-county Health Unit.

CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

Cleaning out a desk can be exhilarating and depressing almost at the same time.

We cleaned out our desk this week. There was a note from Cal Brumley, an old buddy of yester year who has made good with The Wall Street Journal. We should have written Cal weeks ago.

Stuck off in one corner was a bill we should have paid the tenth of the month and here it is the eighteenth. We lifted up a piece of card board and smiling back at us was a picture of Kaysee, the daughter, brightening up the whole interior.

Oh, here's a note we wrote to ourselves to get out to Bob Lindsey's place to take pictures of branding two weeks ago. We didn't make it.

So we cleaned out our desk two hours ago. Took the refuse to the incinerator. Now where's that batch of information H.A. Tuck of the Hereford Brand sent us on sugar beet prospects.

Oh, No!

We wiped off a few weeks back as to how Canyon Chamber of Commerce needs to just about double its budget if we're going to get a great deal done.

You've all heard the old saw, mentioners are it. Well, we have wound up with the job of providing ways and means. Seems to us that joining the Chamber of Commerce is just about like hiring an employee in your business. That's just what the Chamber should be—on your staff and on your pay roll.

The committee is studying the present budget and revenue. We hope to come up with a suggestion as to a solution soon.

Here's a quotable quote from H.M. Baggarly, the editor from Tulia.

"For several years Canyon and Randall County have had a difficult time managing their affairs so as to win the approval of the Amarillo newspaper," opines Baggarly. "The Amarillo paper has disapproved of the past two Randall County judges—and it might be pointed out that Judge Stephens had the disapproval of the Amarillo paper long before he was suspected of any wrongdoing. The Amarillo paper has not approved of numerous Randall county commissioners. It doesn't like the direction of Kandall County farm roads, apparently ignorant of the fact that north-south roads are the policy in most counties since they remain passable during snows long after east-west roads become blocked."

The New York Times recently carried a full-length feature on sugar beet production. Hosea Foster sent along a clipping one day last week.

If the State Department will permit—that is give the American farmer the same break it holds up to foreign agriculture—we need never worry about a sugar supply again. Sugar beets could bring untold wealth to this section of the country and go a long way toward solving "the farm problem."

The I.H. Hollabaugh is interesting people. Mr. Hollabaugh makes furniture by hand. He would sell some of it or manufacture it on order.

Mr. Hollabaugh is retired. Mrs. Hollabaugh says she has been a faithful subscriber to The Canyon News for "more than 25 years."

W.H. Harden dropped by the office the other day. Mr. Harden was in the real estate business for about 35 years in Canyon before he sold his firm to Aubrey Crossland.

Now the Hardens just travel with a house trailer. Their back yard is the great Southwest.

Douglas Smyth of Amarillo came by one day last week to talk about a revolutionary new reading method. He says students have learned to read up to 18,000 words a minute by this method which is used by President Kennedy.

He says he sent his daughter to Washington, D.C. to take the course and she learned to read at a rate of 12,000 words a minute with astonishing comprehension. He hopes to bring the course to Amarillo.

Clarendon High Homecoming

Clarendon High School is having a homecoming September 30, according to Jeanie Matthews, president of Kappa Kappa Theta.

Registration will take place at 9 a.m. and tours of the new building there will get under way immediately afterwards. At 1 p.m. there will be a tea for all Kappa Kappa Theta members. General meeting for the election of officers and presentation of awards will be at 3 p.m.

Barbecue banquet for all ex-students, ex-teachers and guests will be at 6 p.m. Football game between the Clarendon Bronchos and Wellington Skyrockets will begin at 7:30.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

It is the opinion of this column that the American nation needs a shot in the arm—a shot whose ingredients would be (1) a better understanding of the heritage that is ours, (2) a clear conviction that the basic strength of our country is to be found in moral and spiritual values, (3) an unflinching courage that renders us fearless before the Devil and all his cohorts, and (4) an abiding faith that God will sustain us if by our private lives and our public policies we prove our merits.

As to the first of these ingredients it is not uncommon to hear influential people deny some of the fundamentals of our major governmental documents. For example, a widely read and well established publication was recently quoted by one of our regional papers to the effect that "all men are not created equal, but are created free."

This statement flatly contradicts our Declaration of Independence, which asserts that "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, that to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

A careful reading of this document will convince intelligent people that the reference here is to human rights—not to their intelligence, their ownership of property, their size or strength of body, or even their civil status. Some are born smart, some dumb; some are immensely rich at birth, some are paupers; some have strong physical bodies, some are bodily weak; some are born in freedom, some in slavery. In none of these respects are all men created equal. Jefferson knew all this and knew it so well he didn't take time to state it.

What was most important then and what is most important now is that all men are created equal in their right to life; in their right to be free; and in their right to pursue happiness. In Jefferson's day as in our own day there were despots loose in the world—rulers who would not respect the human personality and its inalienable rights—rulers who would take lives with ruthless abandon—rulers who kept millions in slavery—rulers who fully prescribed the conditions under which their subjects might pursue happiness.

Jefferson and associates wanted no such philosophy to prevail in this country; and we don't want it either. But if we don't accept the doctrine of equality as embodied in our Declaration of Independence and prescribed in our national constitution we shall not be long in getting what we don't want; and what we shall deserve.

As to the second ingredient in the proposed shot in the arm it is as certain as sunrise that intellectual, moral, and spiritual values are the heart of our national freedom. Without the wide diffusion of these among all the people and a loyal devotion to their maintenance by a vast majority of them no nation can long endure as a free society. The rapid growth of lawlessness and high crime in this country is a danger signal of the first magnitude. It cannot be too forcefully impressed upon the American people that lawlessness breeds tyranny, and that every one of us who knowingly and habitually violates the law is contributing to the loss of our freedom—is playing into the hands of a dictator. Stop, man, and think! Do you want to be a friend of Khrushchev?

To reduce this danger to our country we must cultivate as never before moral and spiritual values. We must magnify and practice Christian virtues not only at church, but also in our homes, in our schools, and more particularly in our business and professional activities. Dishonesty, profiteering, lying, immorality, greed, and their ilk are no more justifiable on the streets and in the market-place than in the pew. Sin is sin wherever it exists, and none of it promotes our national security.

As to our third ingredient, courage, it may be said with certainty that a man or a nation without it is like a ship on the high seas without captain or pilot. What James Russell Lowell said years ago is even more true today than when he said it: "Soft-heartedness in times like these shows softness in the upper story."

In both private and public life, this country badly needs more men of courage—"Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who have honor—Men who will not lie; Men who can stand before a demagogue and scorn his treacherous flatteries without winking; Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog in public duty, and in private thinking."

Finally, if the American people think that they can win a third World War, or in any way make secure their freedom without the help of Divine Power, they are riding for a fall. From its very beginning this country has acknowledged the sovereignty of God, and Christian ideals have permeated its life. It has risen to world leadership because of its moral and spiritual appeal to the heart of humanity.

On the other hand, her strongest rival denies even the existence of God and stakes her purpose to rule the world upon physical force. She can win only if the American people forsake the principles upon which they have built this incomparable republic. "For the nation that forgot God has never been allowed to endure." George Washington.

CHAMBER BUDGET

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce is about to double its budget. This may be greeted with mixed emotions by those who will be asked to foot the bill.

Frankly, we can see no other way if Canyon is to have a Chamber of Commerce that gets the job done. The question is, do we want a Chamber of Commerce that merely fills a gap or one that goes out and does something for the community?

We think the economy of the move is beyond reproach. You wouldn't hire a man to chop weeds and then refuse to provide him with a hoe.

As it now stands the Chamber of Commerce manager, lacking secretarial help, is pretty well tied down to his office. There is no money in the Chamber treasury with which to hire even a part time secretary.

Travel expense on behalf of the Chamber has been paid by the interested people doing the traveling. Promotional work has been held to a bare minimum for lack of funds.

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors through an appointed committee has recommended a budget of some $15,000—less than half that proposed by Hereford.

Individual promotion is always worthwhile, but there are some things which must be achieved on a community-wide basis. The proposed Chamber of Commerce budget is simple and logical. There is little choice if we wish to maintain our position of area leadership.

Ex-Students to Plan Fund Raising Drive

Ex-students of West Texas State College are invited to attend a special meeting of the Ex-students Association on the college campus September 24.

Bill Brian, association president from Amarillo will call the meeting to order at 3 p.m. in the auditorium of the Fine Arts building.

Purpose of the meeting will be to explain and to discuss past activities of the organization.

Milton Morris of the ex-students association, said due to a change in financial structure, there will be a discussion of methods of raising finances.

This year the college decided to discontinue financial support to the association. Morris said this amounts to about a $2,000 a year loss.

"We are also going to discuss hiring new personnel," he added.

Prior to the afternoon session, members of the board of directors will hold a noon luncheon meeting in the Sigma Nu Alumni Lodge.

All those interested in the future of West Texas and the Ex-Students Association are urged to attend, Morris concluded.

Concert Group Opens Drive For Membership Here

Memberships in the 1961-62 Canyon Community Concerts Association go on sale Monday. Outstanding attraction in this seventh season of Canyon's association will be the appearance in March of Theodor Uppman, handsome and gifted American baritone of the Metropolitan Opera, recital, radio and television. The star of "Pelleas et Melisande," "The Magic Flute," and other performances, Uppman has even recently appeared in Central City and Aspen, Colorado.

Some 100 workers will be guests Monday evening, 6:30 to 9:00, of the association's board of directors, at a kick-off campaign dinner in the Canyon high school cafeteria. A colorful evening, including Italian costumes, arias and food of "the old country," is planned. Door prizes of recordings of artists who have or will appear in Canyon will be given during the dinner.

Dr. Ples Harper is campaign chairman. Dinner arrangements are directed by Mrs. A.W. Lair, with decorations on the Italian theme by Mrs. Royal Brantley.

Membership in the Community Concerts Association is $7.50 for adults and $4.00 for students. Anyone enrolled at West Texas college is eligible for student rates. Dr. Harper points out. Four programs during the season are slated, and no other tickets are sold. Admission to any and all concerts is by membership card only.

Canyon members, in addition, will have reciprocity with Plainview, Borger, Clovis, Tucumcari and Shamrock concert associations. The Shamrock group has already announced ced scheduling of the Paganini String Quartet (which was well-received here a number of years ago), and the Tucson Boys Choir.

Headquarters during the campaign next week will be the recording library of the WT Fine Arts building. Workers will be on hand there Monday through Saturday, from 8:00 to 5:00, including the lunch hour. Phone number is OL5-4051.

Bonus of a free ticket will be given to student workers who sell as many as 10 tickets.

Further planning was outlined Friday evening at a board of directors meeting in the Joseph Findley home. Dr. Findley is president of the Canyon association. New officers will be elected, however, following the membership campaign.

Drama Group Told Of Fairview Breezes State Charter Sunday

Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc., has been granted a state charter, Mrs. Ples Harper, president of the group, announced at a Sunday meeting at the Branding Iron Theater on the West Texas State College campus.

Reports of the progress of plans indicate production of symphonic drama in Palo Duro Park in the summer of 1962. The drama, based on history of the Texas Panhandle, is being written by Paul Green, Pulitzer prize winning dramatist of North Carolina, and an architect has been selected to start theater building plans.

Permission to build the amphitheater in Palo Duro Park and financial assistance is expected to be granted by the Texas State Parks Board at its October meeting in Lubbock, Mrs. Harper said. The parks board has requested information necessary for preparation of a contract to be sent to secretary Bill Collins and the board has advised the contracts will be ready for signature at their October meeting. Committee headed by Dr.

John Denko of Amarillo is receiving suggestions for the 31-member board to be appointed from the area. Mrs. Harper stated area committees have been formed in 11 Panhandle communities and plans are being made for organization in many other Panhandle towns expressing great interest in the drama project.

Out-of-town members of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation attending the meeting in Canyon Sunday were Mrs. Tennessee Cline, Dr. John Denko, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Melin and Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Moyner all of Amarillo; Dr. N.J. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Palmer of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Phillips and Newton Harrell of Claude.

Following the foundation business session, William and Margaret Echols Moore and Erin Wertenberger gave a report of their just-completed extensive survey of symphonic and shrine dramas. The Moores of West Texas State College drama department, their son Wam, and Erin, art student of Hereford, visited dramas in Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina and Canada on a 32-day trip covering 7,000 miles.

The tour included "Bound for Kentucky," a Kermit Hunter play in Louisville, Kentucky; "Stephen Foster Story," a Paul Green script in Bardonia, Kentucky; "Honey on the Rock" in Beckley, West Virginia; "Book of Job" in Pineville, Kentucky which was chosen to show at the World's Fair in Brussels; "Unto These Hills," now in its 15th season; "Horn in the West" in Boone, North Carolina; Paul Green's "The Common Glory" in Williamsburg, Virginia; "Shakespeare Festival" in Stratford, Canada and Green's ever popular "Lost Colony" now in its 21st season in Roanoke Island, North Carolina.

On their trip the Moores talked with drama directors, producers, business managers, cast members and townspeople acquiring a wealth of invaluable information for production of the Panhandle drama. They pointed out the educational value of historical drama, the economic benefit to the area and the rewards of nation-wide publicity of the region.

Surprise was expressed by many that Paul Green had agreed to write a symphonic drama for the Panhandle. He has had numerous requests for drama scripts including those made by the governor of the state of Kentucky, Mrs. Moore stated and "yet he chooses to write a drama for us." This will be the first Green has written for a locale west of the Mississippi.

The Moores visited the Greens in Chapel Hill. Moore commented "we are extremely fortunate to have Mr. Green write the script of our production. He strongly believes in the historic heritage of our nation. It is the duty of this area to instill in the children the heritage of our Texas Panhandle. We have been blessed with 'sacred soil' because some of the great men of the past believed in democracy strongly enough to defend it. We have sacred soil here in the Panhandle and it behooves us to let the rest of the country know about it."

Mrs. Bobby Gotheaux and daughter, Patricia Nan, arrived here recently for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Shipman and the new nephew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shipman and her older brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shipman. Twenty New 1962 Models Exhibit Prestige Styling!!!

"Pontiac intends to continue its leadership of the medium price class in 1962 with an imposing line-up of new cars which are unparalleled in beauty, performance, handling, reliability and riding comfort," said S.E. Knudsen, General Motors vice president and Pontiac Motor Division general manager, as he introduced the new regular size Pontiac line.

Four luxurious Bonneville models, two distinctive Star Chiefs and seven cars in the lower priced Catalina series comprise the new line, he announced.

In detailing the car's new features Knudsen pointed to all new styling, improved V-8 engines, extended lubrication limits up to 35,000 miles, a Circ-L-Aire heater standard for all series, more rugged suspension and smoother operating Hydra-Matic transmissions.

"Exclusive new styling both inside and out conveys a dramatic prestige look throughout all thirteen new wide track models," Knudsen declared. "A spectacular V-shaped front end, sweeping side sculpturing, an expansive rear end design and new custom roof styling -- resembling convertible top design on sports coupe models -- are major contributions to the car's exciting new exterior appearance," he revealed. "Further enhancing car beauty are new Pontiac Magic-Mirror finishes of durable, high gloss acrylic lacquer -- available in fifteen eye-appealing solid colors and a wide assembly of two-tone combinations."

All models include deep loop pile door-to-door carpeting.

Martin-Detten Vows Exchanged in Rites

Mrs. Joseph Carroll Detten

Miss Judith Ann Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Martin, 406 East Slope Drive and Joseph Carroll Detten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Detten, south of the city on Washington Road, were united in marriage at 9 a.m., September 2 at the St. Lawrence Catholic Church, Amarillo. The Rev. Richard Meier performed the double ring ceremony and read the Nuptial High Mass which followed.

Main altar of the church was decorated with greenery and arrangements of white chrysanthemums and gladioli. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbon.

The Cathedral Choir, under the direction of Gloria Baker, sang the nuptial mass, "Regina Angelorum", by Mrazek. Joyce Shank played the organ accompaniment. The acolytes for the occasion were Tommy Martin, brother of the bride, and Joe David Berg, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white nylon lace and tulle over taffeta. The molded bodice was styled with a petal neckline and long tapered sleeves. Accents of sequins and seed pearls adorned the neckline and full skirt. Handmade roses enhanced the front of the skirt which was draped over a deep nylon flounce and dipped in back to a chapel train. Her two tiered illusion veil was attached to a pearlized sequin crown. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Attendants for the bride were Kay Martin of Washington, D.C., maid of honor, and Nancy Martin, bridesmaid, both sisters of the bride. Mrs. Arthur Crandall of Austin, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Richard Detten, of Ponca City, Oklahoma, were bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore ming blue silk organza frocks with matching slippers and veiled sequin hats. The maid of honor was attired in a dress of lighter shade. All carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Terry Martin, sister of the bride was flower girl. She was dressed in white and scattered rose petals from a white basket.

Bill Crandall of Austin, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Four brothers of the bridegroom were his attendants. Richard Detten of Ponca City, Oklahoma, was best man, and Robert, Tom and Ray Detten served as groomsmen. Ushers were Arthur Crandall, Austin, brother-in-law, and Joseph Detten, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was attired in beige with matching accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore powder blue with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white feathered chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and her chosen colors were repeated in the arrangement of table decorations. Centering the table was a wedding cake made and served by Mrs. Bob Detten. Punch was served by Mrs. Tom Detten and cond loss of the season Friday night when they met the Perryton Rangers on foreign ground. The Rangers tabbed the Eagles 26-6.

First score for Perryton came in the first quarter when an end run by the Rangers' Conley from the 24 went all the way. Their fullback, Champion smashed through the middle of the Eagle defense for conversion points.

While still in the first quarter the Rangers again hit pay dirt when they scored from the 1-yard-line. Try for conversion, another run, failed.

In the second quarter their quarterback passed from the 7-yard-line to the end zone for another td.

Half time score looked grim for the Eagles, 20-0.

Then in the third quarter, the Eagles came back with brilliant maneuvering, both offensive and defensive.

Their only score of the game came in this quarter when fullback Elmer Oberst slammed through the Perryton line from the 1/2-yard-line. A pass play for conversion points failed, bringing the score to 20-6.

In the fourth quarter Conley again ran up the Ranger score when he carried over from the 6-yard-line. Try for extra point was no good.

Canyon came close to scoring in the first quarter. They kicked off the game and Perryton started their drive from their own 30. Four plays later with only 4 yards gained they fumbled and the Eagles took over.

From the Perryton 34 the Canyon team pushed to within 18 yards of scoring and fumbled. The Perryton team jumped on the favorable break and made their first score of the game nine plays later.

Canyon People Receive Reports on Relatives

People of Canyon and Randall County were affected indirectly by the disastrous activity of the Hurricane Carla. Relatives of many residents live along the Gulf Coast, and great anxiety has been felt for their safety. Most have been contacted, and they have fared reasonably well, with minimum property damage resulting from the storm.

All took the precaution of boarding up windows and glass doors, and disconnecting gas and water. Some decided to leave the danger area, while others chose to remain in their homes after securing ample supplies of food, water and candles.

In Galveston, the victim of both hurricane and tornado, Don McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald of this city, told his parents that he, his wife and baby, went to Pasadena Saturday. They visited with friends in that city until the storm was over; then, Don took his wife and baby to Refugio where they will remain with relatives for some time. Don returned to Galveston to clean up his property and "get the snakes out of his yard."

he said. Since their home was in the higher portion of the city, there was little damage except to trees and shrubs. Don is head basketball coach at Ball High School in Galveston.

The McDonalds have a daughter, Mrs. J.B. Thompson, Jr., who lives with her family at Bay City, 12 miles north of Matagorda Bay. Her home is on Horn Road, which was inundated with many feet of water from tidal waves. Mrs. Thompson is the former Pamela McDonald.

Jim Davis, who lives in Texas City, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Saturday, to say that he and his wife were going to Houston for the duration of the storm. Jim is associated with Monsanto Chemical Company whose plant is situated on high ground overlooking Galveston Bay. Its concrete block office provided shelter for employees and members of their families in Texas City, which was largely under water.

Mrs. Chester A. Pierle was relieved that a sister, Mrs. W.H. Rayzor who resides in Texas City, was visiting with a daughter in Hereford over the weekend. Mrs. Rayzor is a former resident of Canyon, and her late husband was at one time superintendent of Canyon schools. Mrs. Louise Sutton, a daughter of Mrs. Rayzor, who also lives in Texas City, was vacationing in Shreveport, Louisiana at the time of Carla's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lill received a letter Wednesday of last week from their daughter, Lila, who is a teacher in the Baytown schools. Lila stayed with a group in the home of Miss Eula Potter for several days. They boarded up the windows, supplied themselves with food and water, and sat out the storm in the Baytown home. Miss Potter was formerly Baptist Student Director at West Texas State.

Also living in Baytown are Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wooten and their two children, Gary and Kevin. Chris is the son of Mrs. W.J. Wooten and the brother of Leroy and Dr. W.J. Wooten of this city. He is affiliated with Rohm and Haas Chemical Company. The Wootens stated that while the water was 12 feet deep along the Bay, it did not reach their home, and the only damage which they received was to trees.

At Port Arthur are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vance and their two children, Leslie and Amy. Mrs. Vance is the former Larue Davis, daughter of Mrs. Frances Davis of Canyon. He is an employee of Radio Station KOLE in that city. Burton and Frank Davis are brothers of Mrs. Vance.

Ted Briggs was in Canyon spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Briggs. He is a chemist with the Dow Chemical Company at Freeport, but resides at Lake Jackson, which is about 15 miles inland. This plant was one of the hardest hit, and when the levees broke at Freeport, Dow Company, which employs 6,000 persons, had to be shut down. Flood waters poured in, and the damage was great. Ted, after contacting company officials, started back to Freeport Friday morning. They expected to have the plant back in operation by Monday, even though there were two feet of water standing in it last Thursday. Not knowing what he would find, Ted took along camping equipment, food supplies and water.

Paul Carver of Houston told his sister, Mrs. Ray Welch, and his brother, Joe Carver, that he and his family were all right after the storm. They received some roof damage, but remained in their home all the time. Mr. and Mrs. Carver operate a florist's shop. The Carvers have a beach cottage on Galveston Island, and several local fishermen will be glad to learn that it is still standing. The roof was damaged to some extent, some boards were missing at the base, and the owner intimated that he would appreciate some assistance from the local men in its repair, before they planned to "borrow" it again.

Mrs. Ethel Dooley has two daughters and their families living in Houston, Mrs. Toney P. Brown and Mrs. J.W. Wardell. They report that shingles were blown from the roof of the Brown's rent property, and trees and shrubs were blown about, but their neighbors received greater loss with windows broken and even a brick pillar knocked down. Dr. Brown is a Houston dentist, and Wardell is a paleontologist with an oil company. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Wardell were formerly Iris and Ava Dooley.

A number of local young people are attending various schools in Houston. Among them are Brian Tolliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Crannell Tolliver, and Marcia Nan Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Barker, who are both students at the University of Houston.

Frank Kimbrough, Jr., is a dental student at the University of Texas Dental School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimbrough, Sr., of this city. Charles Neblett, son of Mrs. R.A. Neblett, is enrolled in Baylor University Medical School.

Dr. James Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Russell, is an intern at Hermann Hospital. He told his parents that he was required to live in the hospital during the storm, and that they were all very busy with the increased number of patients being brought in for treatment.

Helen Guthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Guthrie, Jr., is in Nurse's Training at Hermann Hospital. She resides in a dormitory across the street from the hospital and told her parents that she was on 24-hour call.

Mrs. G.B. Combs talked with her daughter, Mrs. Gleb Bourianoff, who lives in Corpus Christi, and she stated that she and her family remained in their home throughout the storm. Mrs. Bourianoff described the long hours of waiting as "pretty squally times". Certain parts of Corpus were completely destroyed, but the Bourianoffs received only minor damage.

Mrs. T.H. Knighton has a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Esse, who live in Corpus. The Esses have visited in Canyon a number of times.

TELEPHONE SERVICE NEAR NORMAL AFTER HURRICANE CARLA STRIKES

Hurricane Carla has come and gone, and I know we were all glad to see her go. Even though we were not directly affected here in Canyon, I'd like to tell you a little of what she did to telephone service on the Gulf Coast and what Southwestern Bell did about it. It's an interesting and dramatic story.

As Carla faded northward after her terrible blow at the Gulf Coast, she left behind:

- DAMAGE TOTALLING $6 1/2 MILLION TO TELEPHONE FACILITIES
- 144,000 TELEPHONE KNOCKED OUT ALONG A 500-MILE STRETCH OF COASTAL FRONT AND INLAND POINTS
- MILES OF TELEPHONE LINES AND POLES FLATTENED IN A TWISTED MAZE OF WIRE AND SPLINTERED WOOD
- 15 SOUTHWESTERN BELL EXCHANGES COMPLETELY ISOLATED, INCLUDING FREEPORT, BAY CITY, AND EL CAMPO, ALONG WITH 28 OTHER COMMUNITIES

Telephone people were ready for the emergency. Before the winds and rains had subsided, Southwestern Bell had men and equipment rolling to the disaster area to restore crippled telephone service.

An army of 5,400 telephone men from many cities and states was hastily assembled in the Galveston-Corpus Christi-Victoria area. More than 900 came from points in North Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, and Missouri.

At the same time, the company flew emergency generating equipment for electric power into the storm area from many places in our five-state territory. From other cities in North Texas, special mobile radio trucks converged on the stricken area to help bridge the gap left by the silenced telephones, relay emergency messages, and maintain contact with the "outside world."

These joined forces with the men, trucks, and other emergency equipment which Southwestern Bell already had sent into the area as a precautionary measure when hurricane warnings were first issued.

OPERATORS FROM WEST TEXAS

While repair crews began the work of restoration, 150 telephone operators from Lubbock, Amarillo, Abilene and other West Texas points were sent to Houston and other storm-hit cities to help handle the tremendous volume of long distance calls... many of them vital messages from police, public health, civil defense, and other agencies.

With skill, determination, and co-ordinated teamwork, Southwestern Bell people worked 'round the clock until all circuits were restored and all telephones back in service (where the condition of homes and businesses permitted). Telephone service in the disaster area is now back to normal. It was a tremendous job, carried out under trying conditions at top speed.

When Hurricane Carla struck, telephone people "came through" 100 per cent in the emergency. Southwestern Bell's "telephone team" of men and women again demonstrated their ability to meet the challenge of the storm in the highest traditions of "The Spirit of Service."

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Don Singleton Describes Carla From Houston Point

"It looked like a fireworks display," Don Singleton said in describing a part of the Texas Gulf Coast hurricane. Singleton said this phase of the storm was caused by electric transformers throughout the city of Houston blowing up. "They would flash several times and finally go up in a large blue explosion." Singleton took his sister-in-law Marcia Nan Barker, back to school in Houston. Also with him was his mother-in-law, Mrs. J.D. Barker. They left for Houston early Saturday morning, not knowing of the seriousness of the storm.

"We heard over the radio on the way down that people were evacuating Galveston and other towns along the coast but the storm was not predicted to hit Houston.

"We arrived in Houston about 6 p.m. and watched television reports of the storm in Galveston. Though the eye of Carla was several hundred miles out in the coast they were having high winds and flooding."

Singleton said the first part of the storm hit Houston sometime Sunday morning. By Sunday noon it was too late to leave.

"I was staying on the second floor of this motel and my door was to the side away from the wind," he said. "I kept it open throughout the storm watching."

"There was a large sign out in front and I could tell how the wind was progressing by watching it."

"First it would swing back and forth and finally, the second day the sign twisted and went down."

Singleton said that when the sign went there was no electricity from that point on. "Weather reports said winds were flowing steady at 40 miles per hour with gust up to 57 miles per hour," he added. "To us up here that doesn't sound like a lot of wind but it showed up down there."

Monday evening the storm apparently died down, according to Singleton. "We thought it was over. But that night it hit again."

During the second seige Singleton said the tops of the catwalks at the motel were blown off. By daylight the winds had subsided and Singleton made plans to return.

On the way out of town we could see some of the damage," he said. "I would estimate that 60 per cent of the windows in the downtown section were blown out. Roofs were gone from many of the houses and most of them were at least damaged. Some area of the town were closed due to flood waters."

They left at 10:30 Tuesday morning and only minutes afterwards, roads were again closed due to fallen power lines.

He said the storm followed all the way to Dallas.

When asked if it was his worst storm, Singleton replied he doesn't really know.

"In 1949, I crawled under a bed in south Amarillo and when I came out the house was gone. It was a tornado."

"It would be hard to say which was worst. I guess I can say that I've been in one of the worst hurricanes and in one of the worst tornadoes."

Wheat Payment, Yield Reports to Be Mailed

Wheat payment and yield reports will be mailed Friday, according to Dayle Thomas ASC office manager.

"These payment rates will be the amount a farmer will receive for diverting from 10 to 40 per cent of his wheat acreage," Thomas said.

"There is an appeal procedure on these bases," he added. "A farmer can come by our office any time within 15 days after receiving the report and if he can prove his yield for 1959 and 1960, we will be happy to change it. He will need such proof in the form of warehouse or weight receipts, settlement sheets or copies of loan documents."

Thomas added that the 15-acre provision has been cut out of the program this year. "All farmers have been notified of their allowable acreage free of marketing penalties," he pointed out.

Sign up period on the wheat program will be from September 28 through December 1, Thomas said. "Of course, this may change," he added.

Thomas said he thinks diverted acreage may be planted for grazing purposes. "This can probably be grazed until sometime after January 1," he added.

"We will advise cutoff date on grazing of this land."

Thomas said he and John Brazzil, county agent, along with community committeemen, will hold a meeting similar to the one on the feed grain program sometime in the near future. "We want to be able to explain the program fully and answer any questions which may come up," he explained.

"As for the barley program, we are preparing it now and hope to have reports in the mail within the next few days," Thomas said. "It will work exactly like the feed grain program did this year," he concluded.

Mother-in-law Club Committees Named

Mrs. Rae Walters was hostess recently when she entertained members of the Palo Duro Mother-in-law Club in her home for the first meeting of the new year. Seven members were present.

Mrs. Walters presided at the brief business session, and Mrs. Fred Marshall gave the devotional, closing with a short poem, "Friends".

The club voted to pay dues in September, and to have year-books printed.

Committees appointed included: Program, Mesdames Leonard Winters, May Johnson, J.P. Hammons and Olga Seal; Welfare, Mesdames J.C. Curb, George Barker and Lester Knox; Courtesy, Mesdames Marshall and Jeannette Robbins; Phone, Mesdames Alice Black and Grace McDougal.

Postmaster Says Early Mail Improves Service

"Mail early and improve service," said Marion Higdon, postmaster, this week.

Preparing for the peak mail load which has gradually grown, due to habit of big business mailing great stacks of mail at 5 to 6 p.m., has cost taxpayers of the nation millions of dollars per year, according to Higdon.

"This money can be saved by early mailing," Higdon said.

"Mail early" is a slogan used mostly at Christmas time. The success of the mail early program during December has helped the Post Office Department to handle an ever increasing volume of Christmas mail for about the same money for the past few years since cooperation with the program has been general.

"If it will work during December, it will work every month," Higdon said. "Mail early in the morning. Mail early in the afternoon. Keep the flow of mail as even as is possible and save tax dollars." Higdon concluded.

Canyon Flying Club Now Has 14 Members After 2 Weeks

Canyon Flying Club is off to a good start, according to Murphy White, president. Now boasting 14 members after only two weeks of existence, the club owns one airplane and is considering purchasing another.

Idea for the club came from Lee Harlan and J.T. Gillham. They had observed the Tulsa flying group and decided it would be a good plan for Canyon. And the Canyon club is organized quite similar to the one to the south.

Members include White, Gillham, Harlan, Ham Hamblen, Bill Head, Chan Foster, Tom Henny, Bob Wilkinson, Joe Bily Wise, Johnny Mann, Billy Tate, Charles Marshall and Dean Foster.

White said member do not have to be pilots.

"In fact, five of the members have never flown," he said. "Of course, many of the members have private licenses and several of them are commercial pilots."

Harlan has more air hours than any other member. With 6,900 hours he is licensed as an instructor.

At the present time the club's plane is kept at Harlan's farm south of Canyon near Ralph Switch. The club also meets the first Monday of each month here.

Initiation fee to the club is $300, said White. Dues each month are $10. "We will continue the dues until the club treasury builds up," he added.

The $10 a month entitles a member to one hour of free flying. Any additional time goes over the meter at $5 per hour.

The club now has a two-place Cessna 140—an all metal plane.

"This plane serves a two-fold purpose," White pointed out. "We can use it for straight flying and it also makes an excellent trainer. A four-place plane is too costly to use as a trainer."

Harlan is serving as instructor for club members who cannot fly. He charges $4 per hour for this instruction.

White said the club needs at least 10 more members. "Of course, we would welcome more, depending on the interest."

Goal of the club is a four-place Cessna 182. Then, if more people join planes will be bought to fill the demand.

It all began when Mr. Moore made the remark that all Americans must really believe in our "sacred soil."

E-Z Wash & Dry
4th Ave. at 23rd, Canyon

This week the Canyon News visits Mrs. Lottie Smith and the E-Z Wash & Dry at 2200 4th Avenue. This month, we understand, marks the 2nd Anniversary of this well-known establishment. One of the reasons, possibly, of their great popularity is the fact that attendants are on duty most of the time during the day and in the evenings. They assist customers in providing change, aiding new patrons on how to operate the machines and for those that need it—they give help in loading & unloading your car.

E-Z Wash & Dry is located in a nice modern building that was constructed especially to house this type of operation. For your comfort it is completely air-conditioned during warm weather. According to Mrs. Smith, this is one of the very largest coin-operated laundries in the entire Panhandle. It started with 20 washers and quickly doubled in size at the end of their 1st year. They currently have 40 washers and 14 large commercial gas dryers. This large number of units assures "no waiting"!

E-Z Wash & Dry is centrally located, and is on a well lighted street, for those who come in in the evenings. There's plenty of off-street parking, too! "If you wash at home, DRY WITH US" is our often repeated slogan states Mrs. Smith. "Some people that own their own washers, sometimes don't understand that we're very happy to get their drying business." "There's plenty of dryers for everyone." Another thing Mrs. Smith brought out is the abundance of hot water. "We've recently expanded the hot water system." E-Z Wash & Dry is open 24 hours a day, except Sundays. Mrs. Jessie Rusk is the attendant on duty during the morning and Mrs. Clyde Miller in the evenings. Also A.C. Carter works there at night. Mrs. Smith, who lives at 405 22nd Street with her husband R.A. Smith, adds that they both are around the laundry much of the time. Why don't you use E-Z Wash & Dry—enjoy the convenience, the famous Maytag and Easy Laundry Equipment today!
